DAILY JOURNAL.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 26.

FIRE.-A stable belonging to Mr. John Payne, situated below Division street, was burned down last night about 9 o'clock, and w 'a two horses were burned to death. There had beenno light used about it for weeks, and it was evidently the work of an incendiary. The Circus was near at hand and crowdel at the time, and the people flocked to the fire and aided the firemen, who were soon on the spot with their apparatus, in preventing the spread of the fire.

T"Laugh and grow fat" is an old adage; and Sterne tells us that every time a man laughs he adds something to his life. If this be so-and we are not disposed to doubt it-we took a new lease of life last night. Dan Rice kept a crowd in "good hamor with | 38c. themselves and all the world," at the Circus last night by his rich jokes; and as laughter is good for health. a provocative to appetite, and a friend to digestion. we doubt not every one feels better this marning for being lighter in pocket. Dr. Sydenham used to say the arrival of a metry-andrew in a town was more beneficial to the health of the inhabitants than twenty asses loaded with medicine, and Mr. Pott, a celebrated surgeon, remark of that he never saw the "Tailor riding to Brentford" without feeling better for a week afterwards.

We congratulate our citizens that the dose is to be repeated this afternoon and to-night. This is by fire! hundred per cent, the best Circus that has ever visited us. The Band, with Kendal at its head, has no equal !, in the Union, the performers are the best we have ever seen, and every way gentlemanly, the horses are splendid, the accommodations excellent, and Dan Rice inimitable. Those who stay away will miss a treat and be sorry for it all the balance of their lives Recollect at 2 o'clock this afternoon and at 7 to- le
